

Gus (Ely) Sherbinin

1935 - 2012

Gus (Ely) Sherbinin, beloved husband, brother, grandfather and father passed away on February 24, 2012 at the age of 76 years old. He will be dearly missed by his wife, Daphne; his daughters Cindy (Jim) Liebel, Susan (Rod) Rutherford and he is lovingly remembered by his grandchildren Tyler & Amanda Liebel, Sara Liebel & Jenn Austin, and Derek Liebel. Gus was also a treasured brother, uncle, and friend who contributed greatly to the community. Gus is lovingly remembered by his brother George (Maxine); he is predeceased by his sister Tania (Don) Owens, his brother Johnny and his parents Helen and John Sherbinin.

Born September 16, 1935, Gus was a long-time resident of Midway, BC, with many years of contribution towards the community. His many contributions spanned from avid community club member (he was instrumental in the construction of the local community center) to auxiliary policeman; he was an ambulance attendant for many years, plus he was an integral part of organizing and staging the Midway Rodeo. His career began at the family business at Boundary Sawmills where he and his family made a strong contribution to the region. Later, Gus owned and operated the local Esso station (where he often sat on a pop case gathering the local gossip).

The family is eternally grateful for all the support of Dr. Ooi, Willy Kakuno and many other friends of the community for all their assistance. A celebration of Gus' life was held at the Midway Community Centre on Friday, March 2, 2012. The family wishes that any requests for contributions/cheques be made to the Kettle Bursary and Scholarship Society for either the Mike Downing Scholarship or the Kakuno Scholarship. Contributions can be sent to Leslie Walker, Box 436, Midway BC V0H 1M0. Arrangements entrusted to Nunes-Pottinger Funeral Service & Crematorium, Oliver & Osoyoos.

In Memoriam
Vechnaya Pamyat

Preserving the memory of our deceased family members and friends