

Nora Siminoff

1921 - 2012

Nora Siminoff of Grand Forks, BC, passed away on July 7, 2012, surrounded by her loving family.

Nora was born to parents Alex and Polly (Kabatoff) Holoboff, December 1, 1921, in Veregin, Sask. She received her schooling in Saskatchewan. The family made several moves before setting up homesteading in Grand Forks in the 30's. Nora married Peter P. Siminoff on January 20, 1945, and settled in the South Carson Rd. area of Grand Forks. Farming was their main life support; in the early years, they grew onions and flowers for seeds, later going into the egg production business, providing eggs to many local stores and restaurants. They had two daughters, Irene and Diane.

Nora was predeceased by her parents and a brother Peter Holoboff. Surviving are brothers Lawrence (Gigs) Holoboff of Qualicum Beach, BC and Walter (Kathleen) Holoboff of Castlegar, BC; daughters Irene (Perepolkin) of Grand Forks and Diane of Port Coquitlam, BC; grandchildren Lynda Perepolkin, Tracy (Steve) Knight, Clifford (Tammy) Perepolkin, Nancy Perepolkin, Scott ((Leanne) Klein, Amy (Dave) Magnusson, Ryan (Tannis) Klein; and great-grandchildren, Cody Perepolkin, Jennifer Knight, Christopher Knight, Nolan Magnusson and Adrienne Klein; and sister-in-law Sheila Holoboff.

A funeral service for Nora was held July 13, 2012 at the Grand Forks Funeral Home and she was laid to rest beside her husband at Evergreen Cemetery in Grand Forks. Funeral arrangements were entrusted to Everett Baker of Grand Forks Funeral Home.
